

10 Simple Decorative Styling Ideas With Glass Art

Learn how to elevate your space with glass art in ten simple styling recommendations.

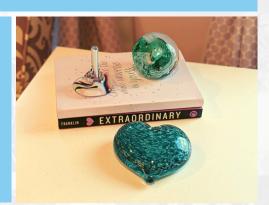

1. LIGHTING

Glass LOVES light. Light will make it sparkle and come alive.

Natural light is great if it is available, but a strategically placed lamp will make your glass art sparkle beautifully as well. Or try placing a paperweight on a puck light that illuminates it from below creating a lovely glow.

2. ARRANGEMENTS

Group items in sets of three or five to create harmony. Our eyes find these types of arrangements more pleasing than pairs like our ring holder, marble and heart paperweights.

3.VARIETY

If you're working with similar sized items, like three glass animals, try placing them at different heights to create some variety. Or try grouping three different sizes of glass sleeping kittens and birds of beauty for a playful display.

4. PAIRING

Mix and match your artwork. Pair your glass art_with a painting that has similar or complementary colors that play off one another.

5. TEXTURE

Try grouping your glass art with textiles, ceramics, or metals to create an interesting combination of textures and add visual interest.

6. CONTRAST

Transparent glass will look very different depending on the background and surroundings. Experiment with lights and darks to see what creates contrast and looks best to your eye.

7. SCALE

Play with size. If you have a large painting or beautiful mirror on a mantle, try giving it some visual support with a small glass bowl, pumpkins, paperweight or handblown glass sculpture.

8. ACTIVATE

to a window with hanging artwork like a sun catcher or an ornament. If they're in sunlight they not only sparkle but create colorful reflections!

9. FUNCTION

Incorporating functional art into your home gets you the best of both worlds, beauty and utility. Use pieces like ring holders, glass bowls and handblown wine stoppers to elevate your everyday life with luxurious touches.

10. THEME

Have some continuity between your art – whether it's size, shape, color or a seasonal theme, use one of the elements listed here that pull the pieces together. And don't be afraid to switch it up based on interests or time of year!
